

THE CONSORTIUM ON CLASSICAL & LUTHERAN EDUCATION PRESENTS: ANATOMY OF AN EDUCATION

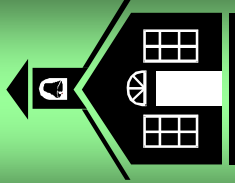

The classical education movement has established itself as a compelling and superior approach to achieving excellence in Lutheran Education. The Consortium on Classical and Lutheran Education was founded in 2002 to provide information and educational resources to assist Lutheran educators, schools, and parents to engage a distinctively Lutheran, classical education.

developing instructional resources to assist others to teach according to the classical education model. Plenary sessions and sectionals will provide participants with broad range of resources including curriculum development, teaching strategies, basic orientation to the classical approach, instructional materials, and much more.

Workshops and fun activities are also being planned for the children of participants that will incorporate elements of the classical approach.
