CONSIDERATIONS/DIRECTIONS

1. Print/Manuscript contestants will use #2 pencil and write on lined paper.
Cursive contestants will use black pen and write on lined paper.
Calligraphy Lettering contestants will use black color only and unlined paper.
Calligraphy Illumination contestants will use their choice of colors and unlined paper.
2. Students will not trace or follow projections on the submission paper in any way. [Teachers may utilize projections on a chalkboard or whiteboard in penmanship instruction.] The submission must be entirely the student's handwriting on one side of paper only.
3. Students 6 and 7 years old may only enter one penmanship contest (either manuscript or cursive).
4. Students 10 to 18 years old may enter only one calligraphy division (lettering only or illuminated calligraphy). The calligraphy entry dimensions must be 24 inches or smaller and must be scannable.
5. Any misspelling automatically disqualifies the entry.

PROCESS

1. The classroom/home school teacher will explain the contest directions to the students. The student's first and last name and age should be in the upper right corner of the penmanship entry. The classroom/homeschool teacher completes the penmanship submission page by type of penmanship, student name, and age.
2. The classroom/home school teacher scans each penmanship submission as an electronic pdf. Please review the pdf to verify that the entry is legible and visible; The entry must be clearly legible in the pdf to be evaluated. Please identify the pdf submissions according to the following pattern:

Penmanship, print, age, last name, first name, school, town
Penmanship, cursive, age, last name, first name, school, town
Calligraphy, black lettering, last name, first name, school, town
Calligraphy, illuminated, last name, first name, school, town

The classroom/home school teacher uploads the submissions to a file folder on google drive (name file with school, town) and shares permission to view and edit with executive.director@ccl.org and webmaster@ccl.org. The teacher then emails the shareable link and submission form to executive.director@ccl.org and webmaster@ccl.org.

3. The penmanship and calligraphy submission pages and the entries must be scanned and the shareable links submitted electronically by midnight of the contest deadline, May 15, 2022. Please do not delete the file from your computer until after July 1st for judging purposes.
